As people of faith, we are called to respond to our neighbor's needs, acting as God's hands and feet in service. When we come together to help people build better futures for themselves and their families, we actively participate in doing God's work. Habitat for Humanity offers concrete ways for people of all faiths to love and serve their neighbors.

Why Habitat for Humanity Is Needed

Housing affects us all – our social well-being, our community aesthetic appeal and stability, and our economy. Yet, purchasing affordable housing is out of reach for many working families. More than half of all adults have made at least one trade-off in the past three years to cover their rent or mortgage. Trade-off include a second job, cutting back on healthcare and healthy food, and moving to less safe neighborhoods.

Ways to partner:

- ▶ Pray for the lives and communities touched by Habitat
- ▶ Volunteer in house construction or prepare meals for work crews
- ▶ Advocate for housing policies within your community
- ▶ Invest to support affordable housing in your community
